

I am in agreement with the objectives for elimination of testing for Morse Code Proficiency, and for the immediate assignment of Technician Plus privileges to existing Technician class operators. I believe this will provide a means for establishing a larger number of radio communicators, needed to help in times where backup emergency communication is essential.